AN ACT For the Settling of the EXCIZE OR NEW WIMPOST, Upon His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, according to the Book of RATES therein inserted.

Shall the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and the Commons in this present Parliament Assembled, in Consideration of the Gracious Inclination and Intentions of Your Royal Majesty, for the good quiet and Repose of this Kingdom; Whereas Kings, Princes, and the great Lords, certain chargeable upon this land, and which shall hand and diminish Your Majesty's Treasures without some timely provision made for the same, and without doing very

It is humble both much it will concern the peace and tranquillity and welfare of all Your Majesties good Kingdoms, that some certain Revenue be established for and towards the constant pay of the Army, and Forces of Your Majesty, and for defraying other publick charges in the defence and preservation of this Your Majesties Realm: And considering also that the manner and means of raising moneys by way of an Excise and New Impos, is found by experience to be the most equal and indifferent Levy that can be made, or layed on the people for and towards the ends and purposes aforesaid.

In all humbleness We Your Majesties most faithful and loyal Subjecs of Your Highnes Realm of Ireland, do pray and beseech Your Majesty, That it may be Enacted, And Be it Enacted by Your most Excellent Majesty, by and with the advice and consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal, and Commons in this present Parliament Assembled, and by Authority of the same, That from and after the five and twentieth day of December, One Thousand Six hundred Sixty One, the federal Rates and Charges hereafter mentioned, and no other, in and by the name of the Excise or New Impos, shall be set, layed and imposed, and are hereby set, layed and imposed to be had, levied, demanded, collected, received, recovered and paid in and throughout the Realm of Ireland, upon all and every the Commodities, Merchandizes and Manufactures, as well native as imported or foreign, in manner and form following, Viz.

That every thirty Two Gallons of Ale and Beer, of a bold Shilling the Barrell price, brewed within this Realm by the common Brewer, or in his Alehouse, or by any other person or persons who shall buy or sell out Beer or Ale publicly or privately, to be paid by the said Brewer, or such other person or persons respectively, Two Shillings and Six Pence; and in proportionality for a greater or lesser quantity.

That every thirty Two Gallons of Beer of a bold Shilling the Barrell price, brewed by the common Brewer, or in his Alehouse, or by any other person or persons who shall buy or sell out Beer or Ale publicly or privately, to be paid by the said Brewer, or such other person or persons respectively, Two Shillings and Six Pence; and in proportionality for a greater or lesser quantity.

That every thirty Two Gallons of Beer of a bold Shilling the Barrell price, brewed by the common Brewer, or in his Alehouse, or by any other person or persons who shall buy or sell out Beer or Ale publicly or privately, to be paid by the said Brewer, or such other person or persons respectively, Two Shillings and Six Pence; and in proportionality for a greater or lesser quantity.

 or upon any other emergencie requiring the same, it shall and may (any thing before in this present Act to the contrary notwithstanding) be lawful to the Commissioners of Excize, their Sub-Commissioners and Collectors respectively in the Ports, to grant Warrant and Licence for hanging the same at the Custom-house Key or Wharf, where the same shall be taken up, and viewed in some convenient place, in presence of an Officer appointed thereunto; and the Owner and Proprietor shall thereupon make particular Entries thereof, both for Quantity and Quality, upon pain of forfeiting the Goods and value of the Goods which shall be omitted to be entered, or else which shall be entered short,

A Plea in confirming Customs That all and every Owner, Master and Commander of any Ship, or coasting Vessel transporting or carrying any Goods or Commodities from one Port to another within this Realm, shall not receive on Board, discharge, or deliver on Shore, or into any other Vessel or Lighter or Boat, to be carried on Shore any Goods or Commodities exportable, at any other than seasonable hours and times, and from, at or upon no other Keys and places than is before declared, nor without Licence and leave first had for doing thereof from the Commissioners of Excize, their Sub-Commissioners, Collectors or Officers upon pain that every Owner, Master, and Commander of such Ship or Vessel shall for every time he shall so offend, pay and lose the sum of twenty pounds, and every Mariner, Seaman or other knowing thereof, or being aiding, abetting or assisting in doing thereof, the sum of five pounds, to be levied by distress, or otherwise prosecuted against as hereafter is directed, that every Owner, Master or Commander taking charge of any coasting Vessel as aforesaid after he is entered and laden, shall not go out of the Port before he do first receive a Let-pas or Transire from the Commissioners of Excize, their Sub-Commissioners, Collectors or other Officer in the respective Ports out of which he is going, specifying and expressing the Quality and Quantity of the Goods and Commodities exportable, and to what Port, which Let-pas or Transire the said Commissioners and their Officers respectively are hereby charged and required to make and give accordingly: Nor shall any such Owner, Master or Commander arriving afterwards at his or their intended, or at any other Port

Port of this Realm be permitted to receive any Warrant for landing and delivering of the Goods and Commodities by him or them transported and carried at or upon the Shore or land before he or they do first deliver unto the Officer for Excise in the said Port appointed to receive the same, the aforesaid Let-Pass or Transire, and that then the aforesaid Owner, Master, Commander or such other person who was constantly on Board and sailed along the whole Voyage of the said Ship or Vessel, and no other shall make Oath before the Commissioners for Excise, their Sub-Commissioners, Collectors, or other Officers who are hereby authorized and impowered to administer such Oath, that to his certain Knowledge there was not nor had not been laded on Board, or taken into the said Ship or Vessel, any Goods or Commodities exciseable, since the granting of the said Let-Pass or Transire, nor that the said Ship or Vessel had been beyond the Seas, nor at any other Place or Port except such Place and Port as he shall then and there declare: And in case such Ship or Vessel be to deliver part of her Goods or lading at one Port, and the rest at any other Port or Ports that the Officers for Excise where such part or parts of the said Goods or lading shall happen to be delivered, shall certifie or endorse on the back side of the said Let-Pass or Transire, the Quantity and Quality of the Goods or lading mentioned in the said Let-Pass, which have been landed and delivered in such Port or Ports.

That all Shop-Keepers, Retailers and others shipping Goods which had before payed Excise for any the Ports of this Realm shall take and receive from the Officer of Excise in the Port out of which he shall ship the same, Certificate under the hand of such Officer certifying the contents, Quantity and Quality of the same, and that they are the Goods and Wares of a Shop-Keeper or Retailer, which Certificate shall be delivered to the Officer of Excise in the Port where they arrive, who shall thereupon grant Warrant for their landing and taking up without further Question or trouble; but if such Certificate be concealed, or permitted to be taken out or delivered as aforesaid, that then such Goods shall be reputed Merchants Goods, and shall be liable in Entry, have Bond given, or payment made of the Excise of the same, in such manner as if they had come directly thither from any Parts or Places beyond the Seas.

That all Goods entered for the Custom either Inwards or Outwards, shall be entered in the name of the true Owner and Proprietor of the same, and no other, upon pain that all Goods entered otherwise for evading or eluding the said Duties of Excise, shall be seized, forfeited and condemned as is hereafter directed.

And in case any Shop-Keeper, Retayler or other, shall colourably or otherwise fraudulently sell out any Goods or Commodities of some known Merchants or other, and not liable to Excise, until sale of the same, all and every such Shop-Keeper or Retayler pretending property in such Goods shall suffer double the value of the same, to be levied by Distress, and further be proceeded against as is hereafter directed and appointed; and likewise be franchised and made incapable for ever after to be a Member of any Burrough or Town Corporate within this Realm; and the Mayor and other Magistrates of the Burrough or Town Corporate of which he is a Member, are hereby required and authorized upon proof made thereof, to proceed to the disfranchising of such person accordingly.

Allowance to be given upon Goods of Goods Imported

That inasmuch as sundry Commodities are perishable and liable to leakage, waste and decay, the Commissioners of Excise, their Sub-Commissioners and Collectors of the Ports respectively, shall therefore and are hereby authorized to appoint such Officers for the rating of all decayed Wines, and brewing of all perishing Commodities, and upon report made by them shall make and give such allowance for the said cause and reasons, upon the landing and before the housing of such Goods as they in their Judgements shall think fit, not exceeding or allowing more than is given or allowed for the same cause in the like matter of Customs, and Subsidy of Tonnage or Poundage, according to which they shall at all times regulate and govern themselves accordingly.

The Contents of a Tun of Wine

That for taking away all disputes or controversies that may arise touching the contents of a Tun of Wines, It is hereby Declared, although two hundred Fifty two Gallons is the true measure of one Tun, that nevertheless two Hogs, two Pipes, four Hogsheads of what sort soever, Six Casks, two Puncheons, or Cerrions, and eight Quarter Casks, shall be reckoned and accounted a Tun of Wine, and every Cask of Wine imported, which if full, shall exceed a Quarter-Cask, shall be accounted for a Cerrion; and and every Cask that shall exceed a Veirce, shall be accompted ed for an hoghead, and every Cask that shall exceed an hoghead shall be accompted for a Puncheon, and every Cask that exceeds a Puncheon shall be accompted a Bin or Piper, without any allowance of Undergagge whatsoever.

That all common Brewers of Beer and Ale, Bakers, and Distillers of Aqua-Vita and Strong-Waters to sell to gain in their Shops, who by this present Act are charged with Excise, and liable to payment thereof, upon the brewing or making of their Beer and Ale, Aqua-Vita and Strong Waters, shall under their own hands, or the hands of such for whom they shall be responsible weekly, (that is to say) On the Munday of every Week, make true Entry at the Office of Excise under which they live, of the Quality and Quantity of all Beer and Ale, Aqua-Vita and Strong Waters by them brewed, made and distilled the Week fore-going, and at the same time pay and clear the the Excise, upon pain of forfeiting twenty pounds for the first, forty pounds for the second, and sixty pounds for the third week they or any of them, or any other for them as aforesaid, shall neglect, refuse or omit to make such Entry and payment as aforesaid, and further to forfeit double the value of the Beer, Ale, Aqua-Vita and Strong Waters by them made and brewed in those or any of those Weeks, and before such Entry and Payment of Excise as aforesaid, the same to be levied by Distress, and in default thereof, the party offending to be proceeded against as is hereafter mentioned and expressed.

And in case any common Brewer of Beer and Ale, Baker, or Distiller of Aqua-Vita or Strong Waters, shall Merchant as aforesaid shall refuse to permit any Officer or Officers to enter into and pass by his or their Cellars, Ware-houses, Ware-houses, Store-houses and other places, and to take an Inventory of the Quality and Quantity of his or their Goods therein remaining, they such Merchant shall for every such Refusal forfeit and pay £1000: and if permitting entrance and taking an Inventory shall nevertheless afterwards refuse to make Oath that the Goods and Merchandizes buried and found up, and taken with the Officer or Officers as aforesaid, were his and were not his, then all or their Import shall be paid for on his Account from beyond the Seas, and charged upon his Import or Export in the Office of Exchequer without alteration of property, all other such Goods shall be esteemed and reputed the Goods and Merchandizes of some other than such Merchants, and therefore not at all to be reckoned in discharge of his Account; and if such Merchant shall make Oath, and yet shall neglect or refuse, for six days following after the doing thereof, to pay and satisfy such Exchequer as shall be due or payable thereupon, every such Merchant his Bond given upon Entry of those Goods which shall be found wanting shall be returned into the Exchequer there to be prosecuted according to the course of Law, and shall not afterwards upon his or their Importation of Goods into any Port of this Realm be permitted to take up, land or lay on shore his or their Goods before payment down of their full Exchequer unto the Officer appointed to receive the same at the Port where such his Goods shall arrive or be brought in.

That the Commissioners, Sub-Commissioners or Collectors of Exchequer respectively in the Limits and Districts of their several respective Offices, or the major part of them, where there are or shall be more than one Sub-Commissioner and Collector, or else such other persons, or the major part of them, as shall be authorized therunto, together with such Sub-Commissioners or Collectors under the Bands and Seals of the said Commissioners, or the major part of them, are hereby authorized and required to hear and determine all Differences and Quarrels of any Clause or Article in this Act or in any Statute or other than such as are or shall be otherwise by this Act or by any other Act appointed, which said Commissioners, Sub-Commissioners and Collectors or others, authorized under the Bands and Seals of the said Commissioners, or the major part of them, are hereby authorized upon any Petition, Complaint or Information, to proceed to Examination of the matter of Fact, by summoning or causing Parties and Witnesses to be summoned to appear before them, by issuing Summons in writing under the hand of their Clerk or other Officer thereunto appointed, to be left at the usual place of abode or habitation of such Parties or Witnesses, and to examine such Witnesses upon Oath in the presence of the Parties, and if such Parties or Witnesses be absent, and no person or persons duly sworn as aforesaid, to be Witnesses and give testimony, shall lawfully neglect or refuse to appear, or else appearing neering shall refuse to make Oath for discovery of his knowledge concerning the matter in Question, or else making Oath and refusing to answer to such Questions or Interrogatories as shall be demanded of him touching the matter in Question, every such person shall for every time so offending, forfeit ten Pounds to be levied by Discreet: And in case the Party accused being summoned shall wilfully neglect or refuse to appear, the said Commissioners, their Sub-Commissioners and Collectors respectively, or such as shall be authorized together with one of them as aforesaid, are hereby authorized to proceed as if he had been present, and defending himself against the Complaint or Information and Examination of matter of Fact, and any Demand or Demand of any Clause or Article in this present Act mentioned, being proved by the voluntary confession of the Party, or by the Oath of one or more credible Witnesses or Witnesses, the said Commissioners, their Sub-Commissioners, Collectors or others as aforesaid, are hereby authorized to give Judgment and Sentence accordingly, as in and by this Act is directed and appointed; and afterwards to issue Warrants of Discreet under the Hands and Seals of them, or the major part of them, for levying of any Forfeiture, Fine or Penalty incurred or imposed by this present Act, by Discreet so much of the Goods and Chattels of the Party against whom Judgment and Sentence shall be given as aforesaid, as may be sufficient to satisfy any such Forfeiture, Fine or Penalty, and if any Goods and Chattels be distrained, shall not be redeemed within six days following except before execution, it shall and may be lawful unto the said Commissioners, their Sub-Commissioners, Collectors and others as aforesaid to put the same to sale, in such manner as is hereafter directed: It is enacted as aforesaid of 1733.

And if such Discreet be better or more than will satisfy the said Forfeiture, Fine or Penalty, the said Commissioners, Sub-Commissioners, Collectors and others shall receive and retain the Surplusage to the Party whose Goods and Chattels shall be so distrained, if there be any; if less than will answer the same, the Party shall forthwith pay the Surplusage, or be distrained again: It is enacted as aforesaid of 1733.

But if no sufficient Discreet can be had or obtained, upon proof made thereof before the said Commissioners, Sub-Commissioners, Collectors or others, then the said Commissioners, Sub-Commissioners, Collectors and others shall shall and may by Warrant under the hands of them, or the major part of them, commit the Party offending to prison, there to remain until he pay and satisfy the Forfeiture, Fine or Penalty imposed on him, or until he be discharged and released thence by Warrant or Direction of the said Commissioners, Sub-Commissioners, Collectors or others as aforesaid, who committed him, or else by Warrant or Order of the Lord Lieutenant, Lord Deputy, or other Chief Governors or Governours and Privy Council of Ireland for the time being, as hereafter is appointed.

That for want of Warrants to be had to satisfy any Forfeiture, Fine or Penalty imposed by this present Act, not granting Ten Pounds, it shall and may be lawful to the said Commissioners in the City and Port of Dublin, and to the Sub-Commissioners and Collectors in any other Port of Ireland, together with a Justice of Peace or other Chief Magistrate of any Corporation Town, to commit the party offending to the next Goal or House of Correction, there to be purged by labour, if they be able, and to have such and so much allowance as they shall deserve by their own labour and work, during such time as they shall continue in the said Goal or House of Correction, which shall not exceed the space of Six Weeks: and all Jailers and Keepers of any Prison, and all Governours and Governors of any House of Correction are hereby authorized and required to receive and keep in safe Custody, and put to work and labour all such persons as by Warrant of the Commissioners or of their Sub-Commissioners or Collectors, or by the said Justice of Peace or Chief Magistrate as aforesaid, shall be brought to and committed unto their several Goals, Prisons or Houses of Correction, for which Prisoners so committed to Goal, all Sheriffs respectively shall be obliged to admit any Sheriff, his Deputy or Deputies, shall make Return in Writing of this present Act, with any other Matter, touching or concerning any House of Correction or Goal, to the said Commissioners or to their Sub-Commissioners or Collectors, and shall send a Copy of any petition or persons to him or them committed as aforesaid to escape out of his or their Custody, or shall give or permit to go forth out of Prison or House of Correction without Warrant or Order in Writing from him or them who committed such person, or that he or she shall be so committed by this Act, or authorized to do the same, every such Sheriff, Taster, Governour, Water or other Officer aforesaid, shall forfeit double the value of every sum or sums of money for which such person was or shall be committed to him or them as aforesaid, the same to be levied by Distress and Sale of the Goods and Chattels of such Sheriff, Deputy or Deputies, Taster, Governour or Water of any House of Correction, as before in this present Act is directed and appointed.

Provided always, and be it Enacted by Authority aforesaid, That this Act, nor any thing therein contained, shall not extend to charge any person or persons with any Penalty, Forfeiture and Punishment for and concerning any Offence to be done contrary to the Tenor of this Act, or of any the Articles or Branches of the same, unless he or they so offending, be informed against, or complained of to the said Commissioners, their Sub-Commissioners or Collectors within Six Months after the same Offence shall be done and committed as aforesaid, any thing contained in this Act to the contrary notwithstanding.

And provided always, That if any difference or other matter of controversee or difficulty happen to arise between any Merchant, Trader or Dealer, and the said Commissioners, Sub-Commissioners, Collectors or other Officers, or if any person or persons shall judge him or themselves aggrieved or injured with any manner of proceedings to be had, made or done by the said Commissioners, Sub-Commissioners, Collectors or other Officers, that it shall and may be lawful for every such person or persons to make his appeal unto the Lord Lieutenant, Lord Deputy, or other Chief Governour or Governours and Privy Council of Ireland, or such as they shall appoint by Commission under the Great Seal, which Commissioners shall take the Oath following, Videlicet,

You shall be true and faithful in the place of Commissioner for Appeals, you shall in all things execute the same impartially, without any respect, favour, reward or affection to any person whatsoever.

So help you God.

Which said Oath the Lord Chief Baron is hereby authorized to administer, and the said Commissioners for Appeals, or the major part of them are hereby authorized and empowered to receive all or any Appeals that may or shall be made from the said said Commissioners, Sub-Commissioners, Collectors or others, and to send for Parties and Witnesses, and all manner of papers and writings belonging to any Case brought before them, and to examine upon Oath, and to hear and determine all such Appeals matters in difference, and thereupon to confirm or reverse all Judgements and Sentences given by the said Commissioners, Sub-Commissioners, Collectors or others as aforesaid, against any person, and by Warrant under their, or the major part of their Hands, to discharge, release and set at liberty, any person committed to prison, or any House of Correction by the said Commissioners, Sub-Commissioners or Officers, and further from time to time to mitigate and abate all Fines, Penalties and Forfeitures, set, imposed and adjudged by them or any of them, by virtue of this present Act, as to them shall seem meet, and as shall be according to equity and good Conscience.

Provided always, That in the mitigating such Forfeiture, Fine or Penalty, care be had that the Informer or Prosecutor may be duly encouraged for his care, pains and discovery, according to the Nature and Quality of the Fraud, had, used and discovered.

That the said Commissioners or Excize, or the major part of them, shall have power and authority to frame, make and give such Instructions from time to time unto their several and respective Officers employed under them, as shall be most for the true and orderly putting in Execution of this present Act, so as the same be first allowed and approved of by the Lord Lieutenant, Lord Deputy or other Chief Governour or Governours and Privy Council of Ireland, and such Officer or Officers as shall not give due observance unto such Instructions or shall be wilfully negligent, remiss, careless or unsatisfactory in the Execution of his or their Trust and Employment, the said Commissioners or the major part of them, shall punish all and every such Officers by Fine, not exceeding double the value of his or their yearly Salary or Wages, and to forfeit his Office or Employment, the Fine to be levied by distress, or in default thereof such Officer or Officers to be proceeded against, as aforesaid.

That the said last before-mentioned Commissioners, or any one of them, their Sub-Commissioners, Collectors and all others authorized thereunto by Commission under their Hands and Seals, or under the Hands & Seals of the major part of them respectively, shall and have hereby power to administer all such Oath or Oaths as in all and every Case in this present Act is required required and appointed to be made and given; other than such as are appointed otherwise to be administered. And upon such

And if any person or persons shall from and after the said five and twentieth day of December, One Thousand Six hundred Sixty One, unlawfully or corruptly procure any witness or witnesses, by reward, promise or any sinister and unlawful means, whatsoever, to commit any wilful or corrupt perjury in any matter cause or thing, which by virtue of this present Act shall depend or come before the said Commissioners for Appeals or of Exchequer, their Sub-Commissioners or Collectors, by Complaint or Information, or if any person or persons either by Subornation, unlawful procurement, sinister persuasion or means of any others, or by their own Act, consent or agreement, from and after the said five and twentieth day of December, One Thousand Six hundred Sixty One, unlawfully or corruptly commit any manner of wilful perjury, by his or their Depositions before the said respective Commissioners, or their Sub-Commissioners or Collectors, or any of them, in any matter before mentioned, every such Offender or Offenders shall for his or their said offence being the result lawfully indicted and convicted, lose and forfeit such sum and sums of money, and further shall be proceeded against, seized and put in the Jail, as in and by one Statute made in the fourth year of the said Queen Elizabeth, in Enacted and Ordained, and the Judgments of Judges and Good Deliberation, in their several Courts, and the Justices of Peace in every County within this Realm, at their Quarter Sessions, both within Liberties and without, shall have full power and authority by virtue hereof, to inquire of all and several defaults and offences last before mentioned, by Subornation, Persuasion, Will or Information before them exhibited, or otherwise lawfully to hear and determine the same, and thereupon to give judgement award process and execution of the same accordingly, as in by the said Statute is directed and ordained, and as is contained in the said Statute. And if any Goods or Chattels detained in pursuance of this present Act shall not be redeemed within six days, except before accepted, or if any Goods or Chattels shall not be claimed or returned within one month after the period, as aforesaid, the Commissioners or Collectors their Sub-Commissioners and Collectors respectively appointed on the general day of Sale, and giving public notice thereof shall cause the said Goods to be appraised by two sworn Appraisers or others, and afterwards sell and dispose of the same by the said Sale into such person as shall bid or give most for the same.
